

Pawns - initial stages

Pawns take two steps or one step but are always moving forward. This must happen in life as well. We are to develop specific skills and abilities but figure out who we are first. During this stage, you are going through many challenges, socially, emotionally, physically, mentally, and many more. This time will set the tone for years to come.